

Tu B'Shevat Blessing for the Trees

It's Tu B'Shevat
The birthday of the trees
We celebrate and honor them
Wherever they may be

We thank you trees for all that you do
Big and small
Near and far
We're happy that you are you!

Thank you for the clean air
Thank you for the fruit
Thank you for the birds' home
And the space to keep the squirrels' loot.

Thank you for the flowers that smell so sweet
Thank you for the shade when we rest our weary feet

Thank you for the branch that holds our swing as it flies
Thank you for the toilet paper
The firewood
And the soft magical forest that whispers with your sighs

Happy birthday dear trees
Happy new year too
We thank you, we thank you
For all that you do
